

Contents

SPECIAL ISSUE

Inclusive Religious Education: Dutch and Indonesian Experiences
Zainal Abidin Bagir, Gerdien Bertram-Troost & Gregory Vanderbilt, guest editors

Advent as intervention: towards inclusive education in Christian schools

Jan Jorrit Hasselaar & Gerdien Bertram-Troost

1-22

To be Ecological is to become Pluralist: Inclusive Religious Education at the Eco-Pesantren Ath-Thaariq, West Java

Fahrurrazi

23-42

Indonesia's Religious Diversity Management in Education: A case study.

Myrthe de Vlieger

43-60

The European Project of Interreligious Learning (EPIL)

A 'good practice' in inclusive and interreligious education

Stella van de Wetering & Adfa Horreh

61-82

To Embrace and be Embraced: School Pela in Post-conflict Ambon

Rachel Iwamony, Steve Gaspersz & Nancy Souisa

83-102

Playful Religious Education – Towards Inclusive Religious Education

A Light-Hearted Way for Young People to Develop a Religious Life Orientation

Muhammed Akdag, Alper Alasag, Ömer Gürlesin & Ina Ter Avest

103-124

Leiden Islam Academy

A first-hand analysis of an innovative teaching program

Welmoet Boender

125-140

Contents

The Religious Humanitarianism of Abdurrahman Wahid and Mahatma Gandhi and Its Relation to Authentic Interfaith Dialogue
Ardeti Jeni Abdilla, Hermanu Joebagio, Wanto
141-157

Principles of Fruitful Interreligious Dialogue: a Few Suggestions
Louis Roy
159-183

Muslim Migrant Religion on Sumba Island
Michael Quinlan, Bernard Adeney-Risakotta & Zainal Abidin Bagir
185-203

The Persistence of Ancestor Veneration:
A Dialogical Relationship between Christianity and Indigenous Religions in Indonesia
Robert Setio
205-226