

INHOUD – CONTENTS

Benedikt ECKHARDT, Some Aspects of the History of Private Associations in the Ancient Levant	1
Georges RAEPSAET, Énergies animales mises en œuvre: charges et poids voiturés dans le monde gréco-romain	41
Yanne BROUX, An Improved Weighed Dates Method for Ancient People	103
Aikaterini KOROLI, Display of Erudition in the Periphery of the Graeco-Roman World: the Example of P. David 14	123
Martina MINAS-NERPEL, Ptolemaic Queens as Ritualists and Recipients of Cults: the Cases of Arsinoë II and Berenike II	141
Hans HAUBEN, Carrying Stones on Egypt's Waterways in the mid-250s BC. A Contribution to the Study of the Kleon and Zenon Archives	185
Michael B. CHARLES & Michael SINGLETON, Elephant Statuettes in the Nubia Museum, Aswan. Implications for our Understanding of Elephants, Meroë and its Interaction with Ptolemaic Egypt . .	207
Emily COLE, Negotiating Elite Identity through Linguistic Display in Ptolemaic and Early Roman Egypt.	231
Flip DE BREE, Roman Monetary Notations for Small Change. . . .	259
Rachel MEYERS, On Her Own: Practices of Female Benefaction in the Western Roman Empire.	327
Anouk VERMEULEN, Landscapes in Stone and Bronze: the Roman formae of Orange, Ilici, Lacimurga and Verona	351