

CONTENTS

Editor's Introduction	1
Thomas Merton's Troubling Questions on Violence: From Auschwitz to Vietnam	3
Donald P. St. John
Sacrifice and U.S. War-Culture	51
Kelly Denton-Borhaug
Violence, Culture, and History in Africa	77
Curtis A. Keim
Gandhi and the Ethic of Active Non-Violence	95
Anthony Parel
Nonviolence as Ethical Spirituality: The Case of the Dalai Lama	112
Lloyd Steffen
The Philosophy of Life in Oriental Philosophy and in the Theory of Thomas Aquinas	136
Eui-Chai Tjeng
The Relevance of St. Thomas' Philosophy of Education to Information Technologies and the Structure of the Human Brain	168
Rainier A. Ibana
Educating the King: the Art of Governance in Early Arab Literature	176
Syrine Snoussi
Education for Peace	191
Joseph I. Fernando

Reading Kierkegaard on Faith Through Johannes Climacus and Johannes De Silentio Kajornpat Tangyin	208
Being in the Matrix: An Example of Cinematic Education in Philosophy Roman Meinhold	235
The PATHS Social-emotional Education Curriculum with Reflections on Felt Bodily Experience and Buddhist Principles Michael S. Drummond	253