

CONTENTS

|                                                                                                                             |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Self-Identity and Cyberspace Challenges: A Dialogue BetweenWest Asian Syriac Tradition and Modernity            | 1   |
| Edward J. Alam                                                                                                              |     |
| Mahapurush Sankaradeva and the Bhakti Renaissance inAssam in Light of the Phenomenology of Religious Experience | 10  |
| Archana Barua                                                                                                               |     |
| A Philosopher's Defeat in World War II: Tanabe Hajime'sConversion to Shin Buddhism in Philosophy as Metanoetics | 21  |
| Taro Mochizuki                                                                                                              |     |
| State Faith and Religious Faith in Today's China                                                                     | 27  |
| He Guang-hu                                                                                                                 |     |
| Economic Justice and Market Economy: A Remark onHayek's Position on Social Justice                              | 41  |
| Andre Ata Ujan                                                                                                              |     |
| The Confucian Golden Rule, Origin and Prospect                                                                       | 64  |
| Manuel B. Dy, Jr.                                                                                                           |     |
| The Ethics of Revenge and Forgiveness: A Comparison ofChinese and Western Cultural Values and Theology          | 83  |
| John B. Zhang                                                                                                               |     |
| Hobbes and the Rise of Modernity                                                                                     | 105 |
| Giuseppe Mario Saccone                                                                                                      |     |
| Catholic Eschatology and Evolutionism                                                                                | 124 |
| Batairwa K. Paulin                                                                                                          |     |
| On the Neighbor: A Reading of Kierkegaard's Works of Love                                                            | 158 |
| Kajornpat Tangyin                                                                                                           |     |
| Indigenous Values for Sustainable Nation Building                                                                    | 175 |
| Katrin de Guia                                                                                                              |     |
| A Report on Religious Pluralism in Myanmar                                                                           | 193 |
| Hilario Plureh                                                                                                              |     |
| Discourse Ethics and Liberal Political Culture                                                                       | 211 |
| Alexander Seran                                                                                                             |     |
| Language, Reality, Emptiness and Laughter                                                                            | 236 |
| Soraj Hongladarom                                                                                                           |     |
| The BHIL Culture in Central India                                                                                    | 257 |
| Babu Joseph                                                                                                                 |     |