

BRILL

JOURNAL FOR THE STUDY OF THE HISTORICAL JESUS

16 (2018) 251-252

brill.com/jshj

Contents

VOLUME 16, NO. 1

Editorial 1

Anthony Le Donne

ARTICLES

Exit the 'Great Man': On James Crossley's Jesus and the Chaos of History 3

Simon J. Joseph

A Chaotic Jesus: A Response to Simon Joseph 23

James Crossley

What is History? Reading John 1 as Historical Representation 31

Rafael Rodríguez

Memory as Method: Some Observations on Two Recent Accounts 52

Andrew Gregory

Implications and Prospects of Jewish Jesus Research: A Review Essay 62

Bruce Chilton

VOLUME 16, NOS. 2–3

Editorial Foreword 81

Helen K. Bond, Chris Keith, and Jens Schröter

ARTICLES

Memory, Theories of History, and the Reception of Jesus 85

Jens Schröter

Memory and Narrative – and Time: Towards a Hermeneutics of Memory 108

Samuel Byrskog

The Psychology of Memory and the Study of the Gospels 136

Richard Bauckham

Memory and Jesus' Parables: J.P. Meier's explosion and the restoration of the 'Bedrock' of Jesus' Speech 156

Ruben Zimmermann

Mnemonic Interplay: A Response to Byrskog, Bauckham, Zimmermann, and Schröter 173

Anthony Le Donne

The Historical and Human Existence of Jesus in Paul's Letters 183

Simon Gathercole

Jesus on Justice and Mercy in Constitutional Perspective 213

Stephen C. Barton

Reading Messiah Texts Afresh? Comments on Matthew Novenson's
"Grammar of Messianism" 243

Benjamin Wold