Call for Papers

The North American Academy of Ecumenists invites proposals for papers on "Cutting Edge Ecumenism: Toward Ecumenism in the Mid-21st Century, Trends, Challenges, and Opportunities." Selected papers will be presented at the NAAE annual conference in Kansas City, September 25-27, 2020, and are subsequently submitted for publication in J.E.S. Send a 300-word abstract and a brief biographical sketch indicating your interest in ecumenism and current position (if a student, the degree program in which you are enrolled) to the NAAE president, the Ven. Alan T. Perry, at atp@alantperry.ca, no later than March 31, 2020.

Corrections

In the introduction to the special issue on Racialized Violence and the Churches' Responsibility (55:1), Adam Ployd accidentally indicated that Tony Kireopoulos' article on genocide engaged the conflict in Palestine. His article does not do so, nor does it ever mention Israel or Palestine in the context of genocide.

We apologize for an error in the previous issue, Winter, 2020 (55:1), in the book review section. The review of Curtis W. Freeman's book, on p. 139, had an incorrect title. It should be Contesting Catholicity, not Contending Catholicity.
